In 2019, the IDB Group continued its support to the sustainable development of the Caribbean region and beyond through the Acceleration of Climate Adaptation (ACL) Fund, which is designed to accelerate the adaptation of countries and territories in Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) to the impacts of climate change. The fund is supported by the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) and is complemented by financial contributions from other institutions.

Flagship Projects:
- Côte d’Ivoire’s Climate Resilient Urban Watershed Project (PN-T1219)
- Panama City’s Resilient Urban Watershed Project (PN-T1219)
- Chile’s Sustainable Ocean and Coastal Areas Project (CN-1219)
- Brazil’s Green Bond Reporting Mechanism (PN-T1219)
- Suriname’s Nature-based Solutions for Urban Resilience Project (PN-T1219)
- Paraguay’s Water & Housing Strategy Project (PN-T1219)
- Bahamas’ Renewable Energy and Climate Resilience Project (PN-T1219)

Main Achievements:
- Mobilized USD $687 million in investments
- Approved 19 projects
- Supported 30 projects
- Provided USD $10 million in technical cooperation
- Leveraged USD $687 million in investments

Portfolio to Date:
- Projects approved: 20
- Total investments: USD $687 million
- Total technical cooperation: USD $10 million

Operational Results:
- Projects: 30
- Technical Cooperation: 30
- Financial Support: USD $687 million
- Technical Cooperation: USD $10 million

Institutional Program:
- Renewable Energy
- Water & Housing
- Urban Solid Waste
- Green Bonds
- Nature-based Solutions
- Climate Resilience
- Sub-sovereign
- Sovereign
- Cross-Border

By Country:
- Côte d’Ivoire
- Panama
- Chile
- Brazil
- Bahamas
- Suriname
- Paraguay

Content:
- FLAGSHIP PROJECTS
- MAIN ACHIEVEMENTS
- ACL FUND PORTFOLIO TO DATE
- OPERATIONS APPROVED
- OPERATIONS MOBILIZED
- OPERATIONS FINANCED
- OPERATIONS LEVERAGED
- TOTAL OPERATIONS
- TOTAL INVESTMENTS
- TOTAL TECHNICAL COOPERATION
- TOTAL FINANCIAL SUPPORT
- TOTAL TECHNICAL COOPERATION
- TOTAL ACHIEVEMENTS